"How to Stay in London for Less" gives visitors to London a new option that meets their expectations even better than hotels - the short-term apartment alternative. Apartments are available for stays as short as one night, and the cost is 25% less than comparable hotel rooms while offering larger accommodations. This handy, but comprehensive guide offers 75 author-approved apartment complexes, what facilities are available in each, prices for rentals in US dollars, instructions on how to make a reservation, and an easy-to-follow rating system. These savvy travelers provide an historical sketch, a table outlining the types of apartments, a map, and recommendations for pubs, restaurants, and shops for London's main neighborhoods.
