The Smiles of Rome: A Literary Companion for Readers and Travelers

Take a Roman holiday with some of the world's greatest writers

Explore the Palatine with Elizabeth Bowen. Visit the temple of the Vestal Virgins with Georgina Masson. Analyze Michelangelo's Moses with Sigmund Freud. Stroll through ancient streets with Goethe and with Henry James. Share Alice Steinbach's midnight epiphany on a shabby hotel balcony. Learn the art of love from Ovid. Visit villas and gardens with Edith Wharton. Enjoy Rome's myriad moods and pleasures with Robert Browning, Eleanor Clark, Susan Vreeland, and many others.

An irresistible collection of writing about one of the world's most beloved destinations, The Smiles of Rome spans the centuries from ancient times to the present day. Each essay resonates with the richness and turmoil of the past and overflows with a great wealth of fascinating facts and intriguing tidbits for today's avid readers and travelers.

"Rome," writes Susan Cahill, "has the power to blow your mind and heart." This delicious, many-layered collection honoring the city that is the heart and soul of European civilization has the same power to thrill.

John Fouts:

As a college student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library in order to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this The Smiles of Rome: A Literary Companion for Readers and Travelers can make you experience more interested to read.
