Ikhtil F/Disagreement S Ni Mu

For decades the followers of Muhammad Rasullah have understood and believed that there is Ikhtil f - translated as 'disagreement' and 'difference of opinion' in the Sunna of the Holy Apostle. I resolved to write on this important but destructive issue, hindering the Muslim Umma from attaining its goal of making the world a peaceful loving environment. If one goes through the life history of the Holy Apostle and his sahabas (Companions), one never finds them using the word to mean disagreement or difference of opinion. The last Message never gives room for disagreement, never ever gives a lead but in open plain simple language disapproves it. I feel highly confused why the Muslim Umma has allowed the circulation of the word without putting a stop to it. This book aims to stimulate the Muslim brother to wake up and live according to what is expected and awaiting him in the Hereafter. I have used standard texts in translation. My bibliography is useful for the person who is interested to learn Islam and the Sunna. To learn what is allowed and prohibited is superior to 70 conquests for the sake of Allah"
