The arrangements are lyrical. Some are arranged in more difficult key signatures. "Pianist Paul Cardall incorporates interpretive elements into his delivery of well-known hymns. He utilizes the ideas of "theme" & "variation on the theme". There are moments when Paul's creativity render the song uneasily recognized, You may think you are simply listening to a beautiful piano solo, & then suddenly it becomes recognizable again as one of the familiar hymns you sing each Sabbath. This method of adding creativity while maintaining familiar elements is refreshing." -Jefferson Fairbanks, Phd.
