This is a book about parent-child travel. One day, the author quitted the job which she had been engaged in for more than 20 years. With her seven-year-old daughter, she started an80-day tour. Within 80 days, the mother and her daughter travelled around five countries - Britain, Turkey, Greece, Egypt and Germany. The author took down what they saw and heard during the tour, their happiness, or their sadness, the girl's growth, her changes and all that happened during this period. They are like essays and diary, warm-hearted, easy to understand, interesting and as food for thought. This is a fairy tale prepared exclusively for children and this is an interesting parenting guidance as well.
