Her company and her friends are all she has now. God wouldn't take them from her too. Would he?

Since she lost her husband and newborn son, Chenille Rizzo has poured her life into her growing fashion design company, Garments of Praise. But when she receives a shocking note from her deceased husband, things begin to unravel.

Megan, a former prima donna client, has caused more than one relationship to fall apart at the seams. She surprises everyone when she returns to Garments of Praise--pregnant. What does she want with Chenille now? Has she really changed, or is she just out to break more hearts?

For Chenille, none of it makes much sense these days. When she finds herself being comforted by the arms of a handsome stranger, she quickly wraps her heart in ice and runs away. Still, despite her best efforts, this man becomes tightly woven into her life--and Megan's. Can Chenille ever really feel whole again?
