Luigi Giussani: Su vida (Ensayo nº 561) (Spanish Edition) Alberto Savorana

A comienzos de los años cincuenta, un joven sacerdote italiano se da cuenta de que la gran mayoría de los jóvenes con los que se encuentra, pertenecientes a una sociedad aparentemente cristiana, manifiestan una gran ignorancia sobre qué es el cristianismo, o viven una fe formal y sin incidencia alguna en sus ambientes cotidianos. Ante esta situación, decide abandonar una prometedora carrera como teólogo y empieza a dar clase de religión en un instituto público de Milán.

Partiendo de un primer encuentro con cuatro de sus alumnos, pronto reunirá en torno a sí a centenares de chicos y chicas que darán vida a una novedosa experiencia eclesial que, a partir de los años setenta, se conocerá con el nombre de «Comunión y Liberación», en la que participan actualmente decenas de miles de personas de más de ochenta países.

El presente libro, escrito por un estrecho colaborador de Giussani, nos permite conocer, a partir de diversas fuentes escritas y de testimonios significativos, pero sobre todo, de lo que el propio Giussani dijo y escribió, quién era y cómo vivió este carismático sacerdote ambrosiano, fallecido en 2005, que hizo de nuevo atractivo el cristianismo a miles de jóvenes y adultos, convirtiéndose en su maestro y compañero de camino, y en un importante referente para la Iglesia de nuestro tiempo.
