La inteligencia rebelde: la izquierda en el debate público en México, 1968-1989 (Criterios) (Spanish Edition) Carlos Illades

La “inteligencia rebelde” a la que aluden estas páginas es la de esos intelectuales de izquierda que en el último tercio del siglo XX alentaron la discusión pública, el pensamiento crítico y el cuestionamiento radical en México y, por extensión, en buena parte del continente.

Carlos Illades emprende aquí una ambiciosa y bien informada revisión de las distintas figuras que, desde posiciones disímolas y con frecuencia antagónicas, contribuyeron de manera significativa al desarrollo de las ciencias sociales, la teoría política y la reflexión en torno a los grandes problemas nacionales y latinoamericanos.

Sin caer en la complacencia ni en la idealización del pasado, el autor repasa aquellos años “intensos y creativos” para calibrar las aportaciones de quienes, en un México dominado por el conformismo, el autoritarismo y el dogmatismo neoliberal, emprendieron una batalla de ideas que se manifestó en revistas, periódicos, libros y aulas.

Sobre Carlos Illades

El autor es profesor investigador de tiempo completo en el Departamento de Filosofía de la UAM-Iztapalapa, investigador nacional nivel III del SIN y miembro de la Academia Mexicana de Ciencias. Es uno de los más destacados especialistas en historia social e intelectual de México.
