Breaking Taylor E F Turner

Taylor is a 35 year old mother of six, who, ever since her divorce from Jack has been the victim of a stalker. Taylor is kidnapped, held against her will and at times treated very brutally by her captors. During her long, brutal ordeal Taylor makes some discoveries about herself and her captors. The most important discovery she makes is just how long he has loved her. Chris is Taylor's first love, and father of her oldest child but he does not know he has a child. He left her to attend school, but left before she knew she was pregnant. Now, he holds Taylor in a locked room in his basement with his partner David. Their business is training love slaves and they intend to train Taylor, but fate has another plan. David, at first glance the cruelest of her captors, develops a complex relationship with Taylor. He terrifies Taylor, so much so that all she can think about is escaping him. Yet, there is something about him, something about what he does....
