Estado e burguesia no Brasil: Origens da autocracia burguesa (Portuguese Edition) Antonio Carlos Mazzeo

Em Estado e burguesia no Brasil, o sociólogo Antonio Carlos Mazzeo faz uma reflexão sobre a formação econômico-social brasileira, desde sua colonização até o fim do século XX, acentuando a peculiaridade funcional da nossa burguesia. Mazzeo traça um amplo panorama que compreende o diálogo com prestigiados estudiosos da história brasileira, como Caio Prado Jr. e Florestan Fernandes, e os processos políticos que nosso país viveu ao longo do século XX, em especial no pós-1930, incluindo o golpe de 1964 e seus desdobramentos.

O livro é composto por cinco partes, incluindo um estudo da transição do feudalismo ao capitalismo na Europa, as mudanças daí decorrentes no sistema econômico e como esse processo afetou a lógica colonizadora dos países europeus e, conseqüentemente, os países colonizados. O capitalismo na América, o reformismo conservador no Brasil e questões acerca do Estado nacional e seu desenvolvimento também são temas comuns ao longo da obra.

Estado e burguesia no Brasil recupera a clássica impositação crítico-dialética para oferecer uma inovadora síntese das "raízes do Brasil" contemporâneo. Através da crítica marxista, Mazzeo debate a história do povo brasileiro transcendendo os muros da academia e dando uma crucial contribuição ao debate sociopolítico e econômico do país.
