Invade My Mystery James Webb Wilson

Mr. Wilson had the habit of writing poetry down in black and white composition notebooks that school children are likely to carry. He has managed to fill around 60 of the notebooks with his poetry. Notebook 17 now titled "Invade My Mystery" was written in April and May of 1993. Mr. Wilson noticed that after observing friends, family and coworkers day after day through many years some people just stand out as fine examples of American citizens. Because of this they either become or invade your mystery, the mystery of life as one sees it.

So beware somewhere someone will invade your mystery.
