The Storytellers in many cultures are the source of entertainment, education, and moral foundation. They are the means for sharing and interpreting experiences, an art form used in many communities throughout the world. This book of stories, poems, and devotionals takes the reader on a journey of discovery and enlightenment, a book of amazing adventure, exciting plots, characters, and narrative points of view. The author uses prose and rhyme to aptly communicate a message of wisdom, hope, and faith. When reading E.B. Staples's writing, and speaking with the author in person, one is struck by his zest for life as seen through the eyes of someone totally taken by the wonder of God's might. Mr. Staples takes God's promises to heart: promises of blessings, of joy, of peace, if but one believes that God has placed us on this Earth for God's purposes. The stories in this book speak of supernatural experiences by people who are like us, people who have embraced a deep and profound faith in our Creator. Read and be transported into the world of these believers!
