Racialization and Religion: Race, Culture and Difference in the Study of Antisemitism and Islamophobia (Ethnic and Racial Studies)

Racialization and Religion: Race, Culture and Difference in the Study of Antisemitism and Islamophobia (Ethnic and Racial Studies)

This volume locates the contemporary study of anti-Semitism and Islamophobia squarely within the fields of race and racism. As such, it challenges the extent to which discussion of the racialization of these minorities remains unrelated to each other, or is explored in distinct silos as a series of internal debates. By harnessing the explanatory power of long-established organizing concepts within the study of race and racism, this collection of articles makes a historically informed, theoretical and empirical contribution to aligning these analytical pursuits.

The collection brings together a range of perspectives on this subject, including a comparison between Islamophobia in early modern Spain and twenty-first century Europe, an examination of the 'new anti-Semitism', and an analysis of online anti-Muslim and anti-Semitic jokes.

This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies.
